

APPLICATION FOR ADDITIONAL BAR

This application form is to be used by a licensee requesting the permission of the Liquor Authority to add additional bars at which alcoholic beverages may be sold to be consumed on the licensed premises pursuant to Section 100 subdivisions 4 or 4a of the A.B.C. Law. This form shall also be filed by Legitimate Theater or Ball Park applicants who request permission to operate one or more additional bars at which alcoholic beverages may be sold to be consumed, pursuant to Sections 64-a and Section 55-a of the A.B.C. Law.

*The Law provides that the fee for each such additional bar shall be equivalent to the amount of the annual or summer license fee paid by the licensee. When for beer only, as enumerated in subdivision 4 or 4a of Section 100, each such bar requires a payment of $60.00 plus required filing fee.

*If an additional bar is being installed to replace a service bar in a previously licensed area, no report of alteration is required to be filed, however submit a composite diagram of the proposed addition.

*If the additional bar is being added to an area that is not currently licensed by you, an Application for Permission to Make Alterations is required to add the area to your license.

LICENSE & FILING FEE IS REQUIRED-SEE ATTACHED FEE CHART. The expiration date(s) for any additional bars must be the same as the expiration date on the main bar license. Fees will be pro-rated.

ALL QUESTIONS MUST BE ANSWERED IN BOXES BELOW. (If more space is needed, attach additional sheets).

Any false answer or statement made by the applicant/licensee may subject the licensee to disciplinary proceedings and/or disapproval of the application.
