APPLICATION FOR A TEMPORARY MANUFACTURING PERMIT OR EXTENSION OF A TEMPORARY MANUFACTURING PERMIT

Section 97-c of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law authorizes the issuance of a temporary manufacturing permit to allow applicants for manufacturing licenses to operate while the license application is pending. The initial permit is valid for a six (6) month period. The fee for the initial permit is $125.00. The fee for the permit is in addition to the fee required for the license.

The temporary permit can be extended for a three (3) month period, at the Authority's discretion, for an additional $50.00 and with the submission of this application form. Each extension requires the payment of the permit fee and the submission of this application form.

YOU ARE ELIGIBLE FOR THIS PERMIT IF:
(a) you have a manufacturing license application pending before the liquor authority; or
(b) you have filed this application simultaneously with an application for a manufacturing license; and
(c) you have obtained the necessary TTB approval to operate your manufacturing business.

A temporary manufacturing permittee can perform the same activities that are allowed under the manufacturing license.
